OVER-NIGHT ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS

FIERRO NOW CHARGED

WITH BENTON KILLING

EL PASO, Tex. — The commission delegated by General Carranza, directing head of the rebels in Northern Mexico, to investigate into the killing at Juarez of William S. Benton, a British subject, it was announced today has gathered evidence tending to show that Major Fierro is responsible for the death of Benton.

It is also understood that the commission has obtained evidence that General Villa ordered the execution of Gustav Bauch, a German-American, who has been missing for several weeks and whose fate has been a mystery.

Both these findings of the commission contradict previous reports made by Villa and other rebel chiefs.

In regard to Bauch, Villa has at all times denied that he knew the fate of the American. No details have ever been given out as to what became of Bauch or how he was executed if he has been killed. The investigation into the Bauch case is being made by Carranza upon demand of the United States.

FEDERALS AT TAMPICO.

FEAR ATTACK OF REBELS

VERA CRUZ, Mex. — Wireless reports from Tampico say that the federals are busy entrenching themselves in the outskirts of that city, in anticipation of an attack by the rebels. The United States hospital ship Solace and the cruiser Des Moines are lying in Panuco, ready to receive refugees.

WANTS MORE TEXAS RANGERS.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Governor Colquhoun announced today that he will confer with party leaders of the state in regard to the advisability of calling a special session of the state legislature. Among the matters to be considered would be an increase of the force of Texas rangers to protect the border.

HURRICANE DAMAGES

MOROCCO SHIPPING

MELLILI, Morocco. — A hurricane of unusual violence did enormous damage yesterday to this port and shipping in the harbor. The Italian steamer Leonardo was torn from its moorings and dashed against the Mole. Seventeen fishing boats were sunk. The Spanish cruiser Infanta Isabella was compelled to put to sea to avoid being damaged.
